Book publishing scenario

1650. SHRI KARTAR SINGH DUGGAL: Will the Minister of TOURISM AND CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) the state of book publishing in India today;

(b) the number of books published in India during 2000-2001 as recorded in the National Library, Kolkata, language-wise, State-wise;

(c) whether the record in the National Library, Kolkata reflects the true picture; and

(d) if not, what steps are proposed to be taken to remedy it in the Book Year currently being celebrated in the country?

THE MINISTER OF TOURISM AND CULTURE (SHRI JAGMOHAN): (a) India has a vibrant book publishing industry and can be counted among the first seven publishing nations in the world, with about 60,000 new books being published every year. About 80% of the books published are in Indian languages. India is probably the only country which publishes books in around 30 languages.

(b) The number of books published in India as recorded in the National Library, Kolkata during 2000-01 is 19,960. Language-wise and State-wise figures are given in Statement I and II. (See below)

(c) No, Sir.

(d) Instructions have been issued by this Ministry to various publishers to abide by the law. The National Library is regularly sending norkes/reminders to the publishers requesting them to deposit publications in the National Library. Advantage is being taken of major book fairs held periodically in different parts of the country, to apprise publishers about their legal obligations under the Delivery of Books and Newspapers (Public Libraries) Act, 1954.
